PUBLIC SAFETY CADETS PROFICIENCY AWARDS, IN ORDER OF PRECEDENCE

Chief's Award

Awarded on the recommendation of the Chief of Police for an outstanding contribution to the Public Safety Cadets program or the community. Represented by a gold commendation ribbon bar.

Outstanding Cadet / Cadet of The Year

Awarded to one cadet each year, selected for dependability, attitude, attendance, and contributions to the unit, the department, and the community. Represented by a blue commendation ribbon bar.

Perfect Attendance

Awarded for a full year of membership, from the join date to the anniversary, with no unexcused absence from a weekly meeting; excused absences do not disqualify. Eligible again each anniversary year. Represented by a yellow and white commendation ribbon bar.

National Leadership Academy

Awarded to cadets competitively selected for and completing a National Leadership Academy certified by the PSC National Committee, Law Enforcement Sector. Represented by a black commendation ribbon bar with torch attachment.

National Conference

Awarded for attendance at a National Public Safety Cadets Conference. Represented by a dark green commendation ribbon bar.

Training Academy

Awarded for attendance at a Unit, State, or Regional Training Academy of at least forty hours of consecutive training sanctioned by Public Safety Cadets. Represented by a blue, yellow, gray, and red commendation ribbon bar.

Community Service

Awarded upon the accumulation of 100 hours of community service, such as crowd and traffic control and community event support. Qualifying events include the Christmas Parade, Cottonwood Arts Festival, Gobble Hobble, July 4th, RISD Football, Santa's Village, Summer Safety Camp, and the Wildflower Festival; crime prevention events and department service hours are counted separately. Represented by a blue and yellow commendation ribbon bar.

Law Enforcement Service

Awarded upon the accumulation of 100 hours of service to the department, including records, communications, property and evidence, detention, the Criminal Investigations Division, the UAS Drone Unit, and patrol ride-alongs. Represented by a red and gold commendation ribbon bar.

Crime Prevention

Awarded for participation in at least four departmental crime prevention events during the calendar year, such as National Night Out, Drug Take Back, CPAAA Support, the Youth Citizen Police Academy, the Public Safety Expo, the Recycle Event, and UNIDOS. Represented by a green and gold commendation ribbon bar.

Drug Abuse Prevention

Awarded upon completion of 6 hours of advanced training outlined in Drug Abuse Prevention for Teens and 50 hours of service in at least two different drug abuse prevention projects. Represented by a blue and silver commendation ribbon bar.

Emergency Preparedness

Awarded upon completion of training in advanced first aid and CPR, training in how the unit would assist in a disaster such as a flood, tornado, or hurricane, and participation in at least one civil defense or community-wide disaster training exercise. Represented by a red and white commendation ribbon bar.

Law Enforcement Training

Awarded upon the accumulation of 60 hours of law enforcement training. Weekly meetings count 3 hours each, along with training events such as competition training, the Ride Along Academy, and SWAT Camp. Represented by a red and blue commendation ribbon bar.

Physical Fitness

Awarded for improvement in the rowing assessment: a rowing percentage is recorded at the start of the calendar year and again at the end of the year, and a higher percentage at the end of the year earns the award. Represented by a multi-color commendation ribbon bar.

Tenure

Awarded upon completion of one year of satisfactory service in the unit. A silver star device is added for each additional year of satisfactory service and a gold star device for a total of five years. Represented by a red commendation ribbon bar.

Firearms Safety Training

Awarded upon completion of 8 hours of firearms safety training and a demonstration of safe and proper handling of firearms under the PSC Law Enforcement Sector Firearms Certification Program. Represented by the PSC Marksmanship bar, awarded at the Marksman (bronze), Sharpshooter (silver), Expert (gold), or Distinguished level.
