PUBLIC SAFETY CADETS PROFICIENCY AWARDS

Law Enforcement Training Award

Weekly meetings (3 hrs each), Bi-Weekly, Competition Related, Ride Along Academy, SWAT Camp

Recognizes the accumulation of 60 hours of law enforcement training, counted from the day the cadet joins. Weekly meetings marked present count 3 hours each. The recognition is a red and blue ribbon bar.

Community Service Award

Christmas Parade, Cottonwood Arts Festival, Gobble Hobble, July 4th, RISD Football, Santa's Village, Summer Safety Camp, Wildflower Festival

Acknowledges 100 hours of community service, including crowd and traffic control or any service that assists the community, accumulated from the day the cadet joins. Service must be logged on the Trackers page and approved by the advisors. Does not include crime prevention events or department service hours. The recognition is a blue and yellow ribbon bar.

Law Enforcement Service

Criminal Investigations Division, Ride Along, UAS Drone Unit, and every Service Hours entry (Communications, Crime Scene Unit, Desk Officer, Detention, Drone as First Responder, Property & Evidence, Records)

Recognizes the accumulation of 100 hours of service to the department in areas such as records management, communications support, property control and inventory, detention, and patrol ride-alongs, counted from the day the cadet joins. The recognition is a red and gold ribbon bar.

Crime Prevention

National Night Out, Drug Take Back, CPAAA Support, Youth Citizen Police Academy, Public Safety Expo, Recycle Event, UNIDOS

Presented to cadets who participate in at least four departmental crime prevention events during the calendar year. The recognition is a green and gold ribbon bar.

Drug Abuse Prevention

Drug Take Back; training hours recorded by the advisor

Acknowledges proficiency in drug abuse prevention training and service. Requires 6 hours of advanced training outlined in Drug Abuse Prevention for Teens and 50 hours of service in at least two different drug abuse prevention projects. The recognition is a blue and silver ribbon bar.

Emergency Preparedness

Red Cross First Aid, CPR, and AED; disaster training and the exercise recorded by the advisor

Certifies that the cadet has received training in advanced first aid and CPR, has received training in how the unit would assist in a disaster such as a flood, tornado, or hurricane, and has participated in at least one civil defense or community-wide disaster training exercise. The recognition is a red and white ribbon bar.

Tenure

Roster join date

Awarded to cadets who complete one year of satisfactory service in the unit. A silver star device may be awarded for each additional year of satisfactory service and a gold star device for a total of five years. The recognition is a red ribbon bar.

Perfect Attendance

Weekly attendance tracker

Recognizes a full year of membership, from the join date to the anniversary, with no unexcused absence from a weekly meeting. Excused absences do not break it. Checked again every anniversary year. The recognition is a yellow and white ribbon bar.

Physical Fitness Award

Rowing log kept by the advisor

A rowing percentage is recorded at the start of the calendar year and again at the end of the year. A higher percentage at the end of the year earns the award. The recognition is a multi-color ribbon bar.

National Conference

Recorded by the advisor

Presented to cadets who attend a National Public Safety Cadets Conference. The recognition is a dark green ribbon bar.

National Leadership Academy

Recorded by the advisor

Presented to cadets who have been competitively selected for and completed a National Leadership Academy program certified by the PSC National Committee, Law Enforcement Sector. The recognition is a black ribbon bar with a torch attachment.

Training Academy

Recorded by the advisor

Presented to cadets who attend a Unit, State, or Regional Training Academy consisting of at least forty hours of consecutive training activities sanctioned by Public Safety Cadets. The recognition is a blue, yellow, gray, and red ribbon bar.

Outstanding Cadet / Cadet of The Year

Selected by the advisors

The unit recognizes one cadet each year, selected on dependability, attitude, attendance, and contributions to the unit, the department, and the community, for exceptional performance and personal attributes. The recognition is a blue ribbon bar.

Chief's Award

Recorded by the advisor

Presented to cadets, on the recommendation of the Chief of Police, for an outstanding contribution to the Public Safety Cadets program or the community. The recognition is a gold ribbon bar.

Firearms Safety Training

Recorded by the advisor with the level reached

Recognizes completion of 8 hours of firearms safety training and a demonstration of safe and proper handling of firearms under the PSC Law Enforcement Sector Firearms Certification Program. The recognition is the PSC Marksmanship bar, available as Marksman (bronze), Sharpshooter (silver), Expert (gold), and Distinguished.

Competitive Marksmanship Distinction

Recorded by the advisor with the place

Awarded for demonstrating safe and proper handling of firearms while placing first, second, or third in a competitive marksmanship event, individual or team. Gold, silver, or bronze for first, second, or third place; a silver star device for each additional award and a gold star device for five awards in the same category.

Congressional Award

Congressional Award | Personal Development, Physical Fitness, and Expedition/Exploration; public service from the community and department service hours

The United States Congress' award for young Americans ages 14 to 24: non-partisan, voluntary, and non-competitive, certified by the Congressional Award program, not the unit. Each level sets goals in Voluntary Public Service, Personal Development, Physical Fitness, and Expedition/Exploration (Bronze, Silver, and Gold certificates and medals). The cadet receives the recognition from their local member of Congress.

RPD UNIT-SPECIFIC AWARDS

Cadet Leadership Excellence Award

Selected by the advisors and advisory committee

Awarded in recognition of a specific contribution to improving and growing the Cadet Unit through leadership: long-term and lasting contributions such as the development of policies and procedures, operations and training manuals, doctrine, recruiting efforts, training programs, and fundraisers for the unit. The recognition is a red, white, and blue ribbon bar with a gold border.

Academic Achievement Award

Report card shown to the advisor

Awarded for achieving and maintaining a 4.0 grade point average during an entire academic year or two full academic semesters while maintaining good standing and active status with the Cadet Unit. The recognition is a yellow, blue, and red ribbon bar.

Ride-Along Certification Award

Ride Along Academy

Awarded for successful completion of the Richardson Police Department Ride-Along Certification Course. The recognition is a tan ribbon bar with a gold star.

Emergency First Responder Award

Red Cross AED, CPR, and First Aid

Awarded to a cadet who achieves the American Red Cross Professional Rescuer First Aid/CPR/AED certification. The recognition is a red, white, and blue bar with a red cross.

How the awards are tracked: hours and events come from the Trackers page (weekly attendance and logged event hours); each event name feeds one award. Law Enforcement Training, Community Service, and Law Enforcement Service accumulate from the join date and are earned once; Crime Prevention and Physical Fitness are per calendar year; Perfect Attendance and Tenure run from the join date to each anniversary. The advisors certify every award before it is presented and record the date presented; each cadet can see their own status on the Awards page of their Statement of Service Hours PDF. Ribbon bars, holders, and certificates are ordered from the Public Safety Cadets National Office.
